Shifting Currents

Westminster College
New Wilmington, Pa 16172
(412) 946-8761

The enthusiasm generated at Westminster football games grew more and more intense as the team swept through their season and made it all the way to the NAIA National Championship in Portland, Oregon.

 Greeting students outside the TUB is the mysterious and mystical Orb.
 What does the object represent to the campus? Nobody knows...

 Named for the former President of Westminster College, Robert Gracey Ferguson, "Ferg" has become home of the sorority girls. With a limited amount of space each sorority has, only some of the sisters can live on the "suite".

 Old Main was originally erected in 1855, at a cost of six thousand dollars. Six years later the building burned to the ground. Within a year, they rebuilt a bigger more complex building only to have it burn down in 1927. Without hesitation, the administration ordered the breaking of ground for a new Old Main which still stands today.

A Look at the Sea-nery

Shifting Currents

flow through every aspect of college life

Separating the boys dormitories from the girls dormitories, the creek runs down the middle of Westminster's campus. Due to the absence of rain, the waters are lower than normal.

Anyone who has attended Westminster, will likely never forget those quarterly chimes coming from the bell tower. They did come in handy when sitting in class without a watch. And, they were most enjoyable at Christmas time when they would chime to Christmas carols.

On October 30, 1993 this monument was erected in dedication of the 1992-94 Parents' councils and to all of the Westminster parents who helped fund the campus signs.

The early morning crowd flocks into the TUB to buy one of their famous Easy Risers. "Pick 'em up"

Although Ferguson's terrace is no longer an "ash-tray", Dave Lovett lights up out of habit.

Yu-Ra Han tries desperately to get her companion to go outside for a walk.

Danielle Ferrari, a.k.a. Danny, is traveling to Hoyt to do some studying.

Floating Between Classes

Students enjoy the free time they have throughout their hectic days...

With only ten minutes between classes, it is common to see students congregating outside of the Titan Union Building on a nice day. Nice days are few and far between in New Wilmington. It seems the majority of the year brings us rain or snow. So, when the sun comes out, the campus takes advantage of it.

Nate McCullough was so excited about the nice weather that he had to share his enthusiasm with sophomore Karen Gervasi.

Junior Brian Fisher is rarely seen without his piano. Apparently it was too heavy to carry to class. Maybe it is in his backpack.

The weather must have been bad.

Schedules are constantly hard to keep track of them. And,

With

it's hard to keep up

Student Life and the events.

Michele Ruggerio unsuccessfully attempts to try out a friend's new chair, only to be swallowed by it.

Not only do Westminster students receive a quality Liberal Arts education, they also get experience in the furniture and moving industries.

Hey, it could be worse.....It could be raining and miserable and everything you carry up to the room is sopping wet. And, the smell of mold lingers in your new room.

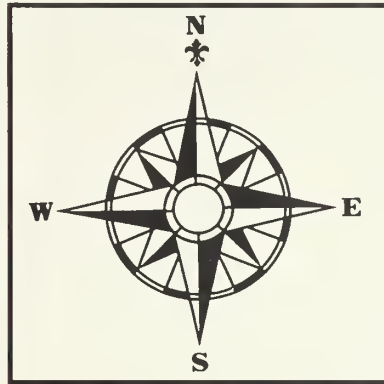

Sophomore Kelli Kallner manages a smile even through the intense trial of carrying her extensive wardrobe up three flights of stairs.

Be careful not to drop anything!

MOVING IN

...AH, YES, THE TRADITIONAL

first day ritual. After a summer of working nine to five seven days a week, moving in almost seems like the beginning of the vacation instead of the beginning of school..... Almost.

The year begins with the laying of the carpets, the building of the lofts, the swearing of the fathers...Fraternity initiations can't hold a flame to the rituals of the first day back on campus.

Homecoming'93

On Saturday, October 2, 1993 during halftime of the Westminster vs. Ferrum football game, AGD's Valerie McCowan was crowned by 92's Homecoming Queen, Avery Piper. The annual parade was held earlier that day with the theme "International Music". Despite the rain, there was a nice turnout for the parade. The overall winner was Sigma Kappa's "Environment" which included a rotating globe and representatives from various countries. Other winners included the Independents' West Side Story, Alpha Phi Omega's It's A Small World, Kappa Delta's "Memories", and Theta Chi's version of Lawrence Welk.

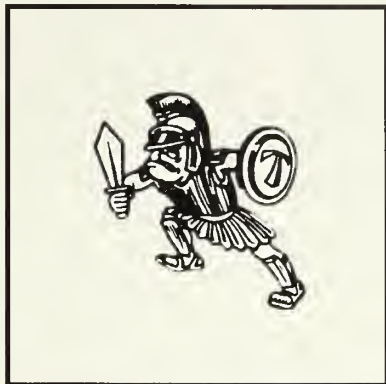

The 1993 Homecoming Court consisted of Melissa Napoleon (Kappa Delta), Dani Balla (Phi Mu), Dayna Bokenkamp (Independent), Nicole Brkich (Sigma Kappa), Jen Sauro (Zeta Tau Alpha), and Valerie McCowan (Alpha Gamma Delta).

OVERFLOWING STANDS

and tail gate parties is norm for the Saturday games

Groups of students, parents, alumni, and friends flood Memorial Field to support our fighting Titans on to another victory. The Greeks show off their Westminster spirit and greek unity by leading the cheers.

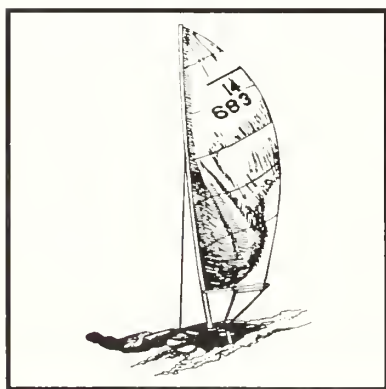

The crowd gave the performing band, Innovation a warm welcome on Friday, November 6, 1993.

General manager, Brian Hetzer, took a moment away from his duties to dance with Channon Williams.

A member of Inn-O-Vation, Daryl Jasper, sang to Carol Brownlee and Brooker Newberry.

The voyage for entertainment ends at the Down Under

The rough journey begins every Friday night. What is there to do? There is always the options of going to one of the fraternity houses or staying in and watching television. But, sometimes it is nice to do something different. The Down Under offers entertainment from comedians to bands. And, every Sunday night is designated "movie" night. So, for a nice change of pace, sail to the Down Under.

Many Westminster students came to the Down Under on September 11, 1993 to listen to Barry Drake's "When the Music Mattered".

Tony Carraba and Mindy Bell are bar-tenders for the Down Under. Don't expect them to mix you a martini, though: this place is dry.

An annual favorite at the Down Under, Singer/Guitarist Dave Wopat blends his unique mix of comedy and music for the late night crowd.

The Fettucini Brothers amazed both students and their families during family weekend this past fall.

Who says Westminster students aren't multi-talented? These musical babes provided guitarist Dave Wopat with his backing band.

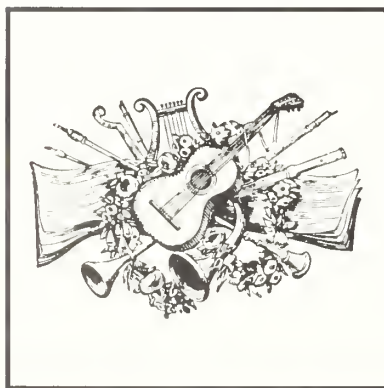

Erika Sill enchants the audience with her voice while trying to win the talent show competition.

The R.A.'s did it again. They put together another one of those wild and crazy skits we all love.

Talent Was Displayed During Family Weekend

The conclusion of the Freshstart activities is the annual Talent Show. A great turnout was due in part by the fact it was Parent's Weekend. And, since this entertainment can be enjoyed by the young and the not so young, a good time was had by all. The big winner of the Talent Show was Kris Zook in the Phantom of the Opera.

T. J. Greggs delighted the crowd with his singing abilities. The talent show is held annually in Orr Auditorium during Parent's Weekend.

Kris Zook's Phantom of the Opera skit allowed him to take home the first place award at the family Weekend's Talent Show on September 25, 1993.

There were many different contestants ranging from freshman to seniors competing for the grand prize.

An Opportunity of a Lifetime -- The January Term

From voyages down the Amazon to escapades around Europe, Westminster's January term offers students an excellent chance to learn about the world in an untraditional manner. The students do not merely read textbooks or watch films, but they explore these faraway places where history was recorded centuries ago. An opportunity to see the world with a personal guide and a group of friends-- In a package deal at an excellent price.

The January 1994 Term Experience of a Lifetime

While most of us were suffering -40 degree weather and a couple of feet of snow, this crew flew to Hawaii and studied on the beach.

Kathy Reirson snuck a drink of this coconut's milk while noone was looking.

Westminster Lends a Hand

One Unit Can Save 3 Lives

Sponsored by the Panhellenic Council, Westminster students flooded the TUB lounge in a steady flow to help someone out there who is in the need of blood or any of its components. These blood drives that are conducted at highschools and college campuses represent 20% of all of the blood donated to them. So it is vital that when a drive is being conducted on our campus that we all do our part and donate one unit of our blood. The whole process takes about an hour, but there is only five to eight minutes of actual time blood is being taken. It is not every day that you can save someones life, so when the opportunity comes around, take advantage of it. Who knows maybe someday you will be the one needing others to donate.

The Music of Westminster

For Some A Major, Others A Passion

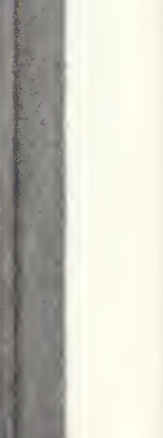

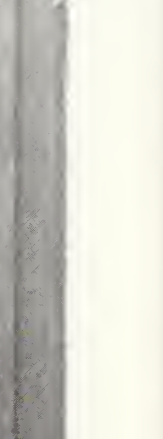

They practice in a room buried deep down in Patterson Hall's basement. Which is probably very wise because they will not distract any of the other classes going on. It is not a proven fact, but it is probably safe to assume that most of the students would be more likely to listen to the calm & soothing sounds of an orchestra practicing in the next room rather than a lecture on the history of the fall of Communism.

But, their music can be heard on numerous occasions. A popular display of their talent is at the Vespers. Their Christmas melodies warm every heart. They also perform at many of the other events around campus.

On A Journey To Meet An Average WC Student

The Journey Continues...

The Argo

Creation of the 1994 Yearbook

After dedicating last summer to the completion of the 1993 yearbook, I made the decision to become the Editor of the 1994 book. Although there was a lack in enthusiasm to help create this book, I did (as you can see) accomplish my goal. But, of course, I relied on the kindness of others to help me. My sister, Sherry, helped me finish off the '93 book and get rid of T.J.'s art on the walls of the Argo office. My other sister, Kelly, helped with some of the finances of the '94 book and did the Greek Section in this book (pages 60-87). Chris Cole, Gregg "Spanky" Hoy, and Natalie Schmolly took pictures for the book. Camille Hawthorne and the Publications Office allowed me to borrow some of their pictures--which I will return as soon as I separate them. Ms. Molly Spinney, my advisor, was always there to lend a hand or an ear whenever necessary. Her job can be a real headache at times. But, all she does is appreciate. Larry Intihar, my Josten's representative that I have worked with for 5 years now, has become a friend and a role model. My parents both deserve a big "Thanks" because they took a day off of work to take me to State College to pick up 1400 hundred of these books on two different occasions (it saved Argo $3,500). And, they were there to listen to me complain about every problem I encountered throughout this whole escapade. Every person who has in some way helped mold this book, I Thank You.

Allison Gallaher

Kelly Gallaher takes a break from doing her pages on the computer to have a sandwich.

I did not have a picture of Chris Cole, but this is one of his pictures he developed in the Argo office. He took this one night while driving across a bridge in Pittsburgh.

This is me, Allison Gallaher, and Heather Bloom. We became Vice-Pres. and Pres.(respectively) of our sorority--Sigma Kappa. And since then she and I have become closer friends. Thanks for the moral support Bloomie--We are going to have awesome time in Dallas this summer!

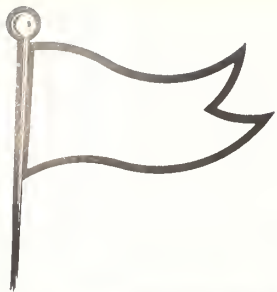

Kelli Kallner (a.k.a. Kelli K.) is seen here after dropping all of my pretzels on the floor. Kelli is the best because when she came back from J-Term, she didn't freakout when she saw how I changed our room into a yearbook office--papers, pictures, and computer stuff everywhere.

Chad Sutley kept me company while I compiled most of the book. He was always doing something to make me laugh. He put up with me and all of my attitude when things were not going my way. Thanks for everything--Your the best.

Check out this "STAR" formation. These are my sorority sisters, but more importantly, they are my friends. They all had some contribution to this book whether it was a word of inspiration or donating pictures (like my buddy, Kathy) or even taking pictures (Thanks Teri). Who could ask for a better group of gals??? Oh, and Amy (Hancock), I love your dress-- where on earth did you ever find it?

Alpha Phi Omega

Cooking up some fine cuisine are Sean Martin, Brenna Hartzell, Brian Ollum, and Michelle Seigler at the Homecoming Alumni Picnic.

Body heat was the only way these two could keep warm when they spent the weekend camped inside the Orb during Homecoming last fall.

The members of Alpha Phi Omega were proud of their 1993 Fall Pledge Class.

The titanettes accompany the band for our halftime entertainment

The band, under the instruction of Tad Greigg, performed at every home football game this season. They performend in the rain and in the snow this year. The titanettes, choreographed by Amanda Gashel, accompanied the band on the feild during the halftime activities.

The Danceline consisted of Melissa Anderson, Amanda Gashel, Christy Nicholson, Kelly Kallner, Nicole Catarcio, Amy Bergstrom, April Keighley, and Christy Nicholson.

They stand for hope when there doesn't seem to be any. They are members of a Christian Ecumenical Ministry that has as its goal the elimination of homelessness everywhere. They are Habitat for Humanity. In 1993, they raised $26,000 and had 45 students journey to Miami, Florida during their Spring Break. And continuing their ten year relationship with Habitat, in 1994, they raised $12,000 and had 45 students go to Miami, Florida and Meridian, Mississippi.

TITAN CHEERLEADERS

The eight cheerleaders performed at every game--home & away. Traveling across the country with the football and basketball teams, the girls synchronized their moves almost perfectly. They braved the cold weather of the football season and the uncomfortable heat of a crowded basketball gymnasium.

Captain, Christy Jewell leads the crowd in a well known chant.

Sophomore, Jennifer Solanik, is a real pro in her first season as a Titan cheerleader.

Who says sisters don't get along? Phi Mu's Dani Balla and Shelly Metcalfe prove that friendships withstand the constantly shifting currents of our lives.

The rain could not dampen the Phi Mu's good time. Prior to the Homecoming parade the sisters posed for this groovy picture. "PEACE".

The Activities Fair allows the freshman on campus to get information on the various organizations available to them. It gave Kappa Delta a chance to show off their paddles, pictures, and pillows to the freshman girls, while giving them information on their sorority.

Darwin Huey, the Defensive Coordinator, teamed up with Matt Raich, the Student Assistant to give the team members on the bench a few pointers before the resumed play on the field.

The team as a whole took a moment of silence before they began the football game.

Center, Brian Wilson, waits for the quarterbacks signal to hike him the ball.

Sean O'Shea had excellent coverage when he completed this fifteen yard pass during the Ferrum game.

Bryan Hoenig a Junior from Blackhawk is waiting for the referee's call on the last play.

GLIMPSE AT WESTMINSTER'S BEST

ANOTHER TITAN SEASON ENDS AT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

While most people would merely shake hands to congratulate the kicker on a nice punt, Matt Rohrbuck smacks his head into Willie Woods'-- which is probably more appropriate for the football field.

Aldridge Jones a senior Defensive Back has everything it takes to be an excellent player--stamina, balance and speed.

Headed off to the middle of the field for the coin toss are the team captains, Louis Perrotta, Craig Gross, and Matt Buggy.

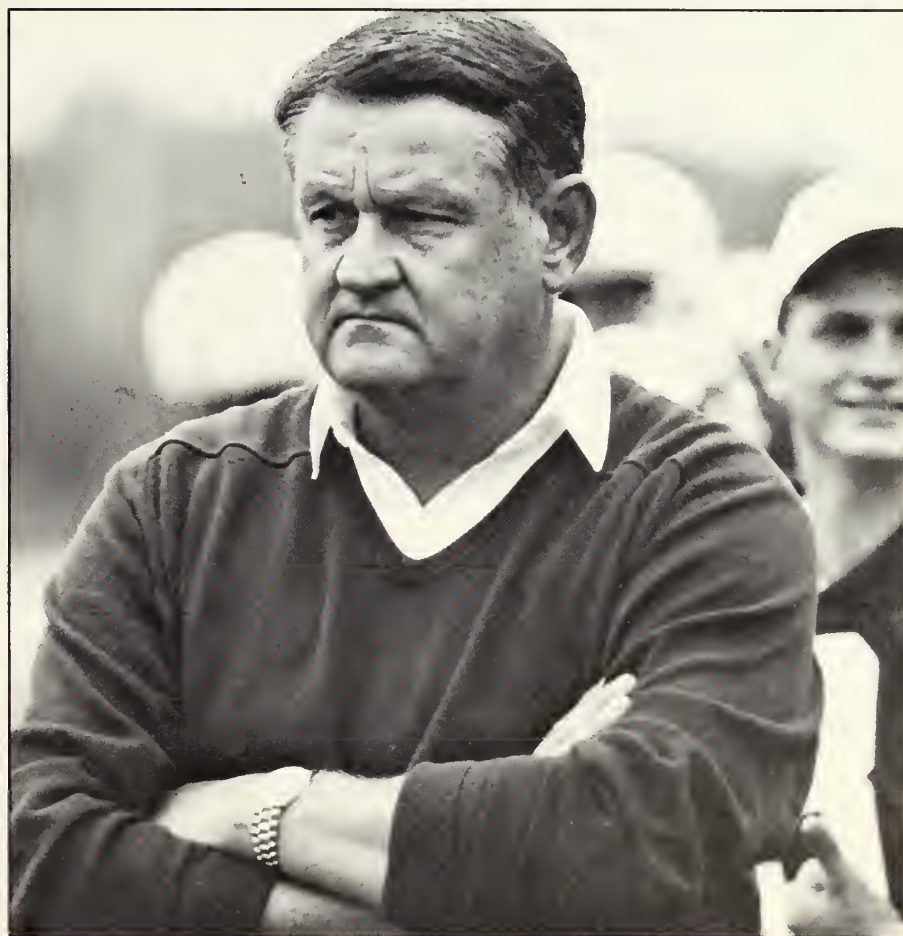

sophomore Andy Blatt proved his abilities this season. The running back from Greenville Pennsylvania led his team in rushing and his name was commonly heard during the course of the season. Andy was able to gain few yards on this play because of Eric Stocz's (82) tackle.

ones, Dick, McLain, Mills, and "Hoss" take a breather as they watch their team from the sidelines.

You can see the concentration in his face. Coach Gene Nicholson's third season as head coach of the Westminster's Titans is certainly one he can be proud of.

Quarterback Sean O'Shea, a junior from Harmony, tries to concentrate on what his coach in the press box has to say.

Dr. Oscar E Remick is the President of Westminster College. Although he has many responsibilities that keep him occupied most of the time, he always makes time to be friendly to the students of the campus making it known that he will help any of us however he can.

The student to faculty ratio is 16 to 1 making most classes under twenty-five students. This is quite beneficial to the students in many ways.

Many students feel that they can openly talk to their professors. The most appropriate time is usually after class or during the professors office hours.

Paul Darlington, Director of Security and Safety on Westminster's campus, took time out of his schedule one Sunday evening to speak with all of the sorority women about Alcohol Awareness.

Sitting in the back of their English class, these students try to understand what their professor is discussing.

Trick or Treat on the Suite

Ladies of Ferguson host a Sweet Afternoon of Halloween Fun

FAST BECOMING A TRADITION, FACULTY, STAFF, AND ADMINISTRATION ARE ASKED TO BRING THEIR CHILDREN TO TRICK-OR-TREAT ON THE FERGUSON SUITE. THE SORORITY GIRLS SIT OUTSIDE THEIR ROOMS AND HAND OUT CANDY TO ALL THE CHILDREN. IT HAS PROVEN TO BE A SAFE, WEATHER-PROOF AFTERNOON OF FUN!

Shirley Clark is well known to the Ferguson girls. She is responsible for maintaining the hall. Shirley brought her new-born baby granddaughter with her for all of the girls to see.

These three pretty girls belong to the director of the preschool.

This Little Devil belongs to Dean Thomas and his wife Jodelle. Phillip is no stranger to Westminster's campus. Living in New Wilmington, he is often seen walking along side his mom and dad.

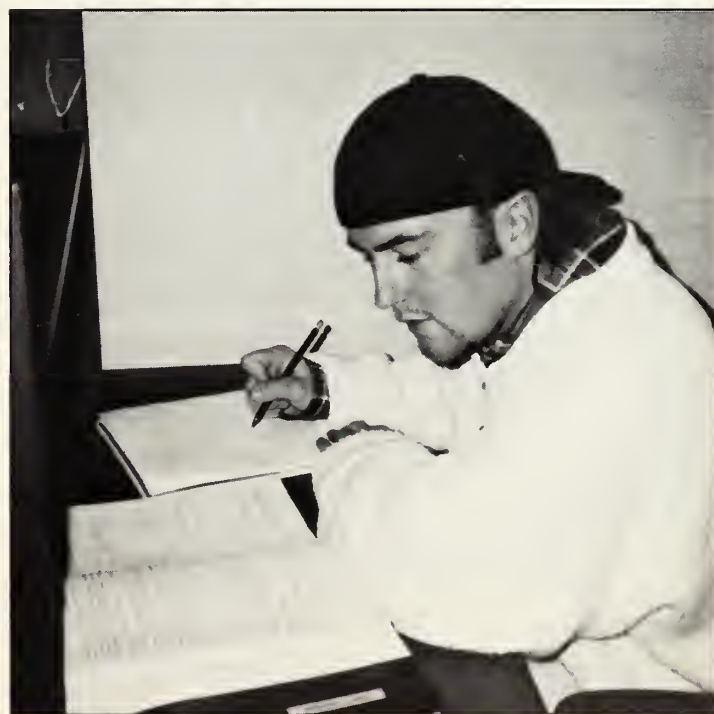

This Bumble Bee had a good time running up and down the halls collecting an assortment of goodies to take home.

Mommies tiny clown was too bashful to ask anyone for a treat.

Jr. Block Sponsors Book Sale

Money raised will be used to buy new children's books

The McGill Library is filled with thousands of book, magazines and newspapers. But, to the dismay of the elementary education majors, McGill has a somewhat limited number of children's books.

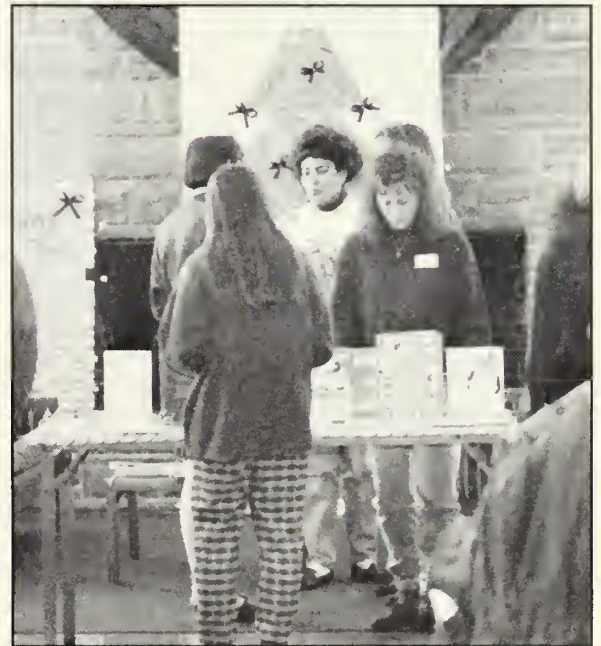

And, what the library does carry, are books that are becoming obsolete. So, the students of Junior Block decided to do something about this problem. They sponsored a book sale this December complete with Santa and Cookies for all. The idea was a success and with their profits they bought children's books for the McGill.

"Very pleased to make your acquaintance..." With the Christmas spirit in the air, everyone was eager to politely help out any customer--no matter the age.

From picture books to biographies, the assortment of books was large enough for most to find what they were looking for.

Duran Duran came back. The hitmakers and video icons of the 1980s came back with a hot self-titled album. The British band was formed in 1980, then split-up about five years later and regrouped the following year. "Duran Duran" was also the name of their first record, which came out in 1981. The quintet's latest album, "Duran Duran" is a big hit. And so is the single from that album, "Ordinary World," which hit the top ten.

"It's About Time" is an aptly named title for SWV's debut album. It was only a matter of time before a crew of young females, with real singing talent and street appeal arrived on the musical scene. Coko, Taj and Lelee --Sisters With Voices-- have been drawing attention with their singing abilities since childhood. Their debut album is a fresh collection of urban street beats, soulfully oldstyle ballads and a little rap.

David Letterman, the darling of the late-night television audience, left his niche at NBC and moved over to Broadway and 52nd St. to the newly refurbished Ed Sullivan Theater that CBS renovated for him. He changed networks for a reported $15 million contract. And his new show swept the ratings with rave reviews.

Pearl Jam, the purveyor of grunge, which is an unadorned grinding rock sound fashioned by Seattle-based bands, swept the 10th annual Video Music Awards with four awards for "Jeremy." The group's first release, "Ten," hit the charts and went triple platinum. One critic said: "Singer Eddie Vedder has a stage presence not seen since The Doors' Jim Morrison. His low, powerful vocals and the band's snarling, two-guitar attack is the essential Seattle sound."

Soul Asylum's eighth album "Grave Dancers Union" reached gold status and the three videos from it are in frequent rotation on MTV. After nine years, the group from Minneapolis finally found success. The album was created with an emphasis on songs rather than volume. They realized that they couldn't play punk forever.

Dr. Dre is the chief architect of what is known as West Coast gangsta rap. He has produced million-selling albums, most recently "The Chronic." According to one critic: "The Dre sound is clean but edgy, deeply funky, featuring slow, big-bottomed, slightly dirty beats and powered by guitar and bass work that is the best."

The 1991 release by the Spin Doctors entitled "Pocket Full of Kryptonite" simmered as a cult hit for almost a year before taking off toward multi-platinum status. Guitarist Aaron Comess, who studied at New York's New School, formed the band with classmates. He performs his soulful talking blues and rhythmic cords with unwavering skill.

Janet Jackson's new album "Janet" introduces a bold new singer. Her new album clocks in at more than 75 minutes and doesn't leave out much — pop, rap, rock, jazz, ballads, opera, a thunderstorm and goofy dialogue. One critic said: "This album contains some of the finest work by this modern hitmaker, and more than a few moments that are downright silly and boring."

THE ALMA MATER

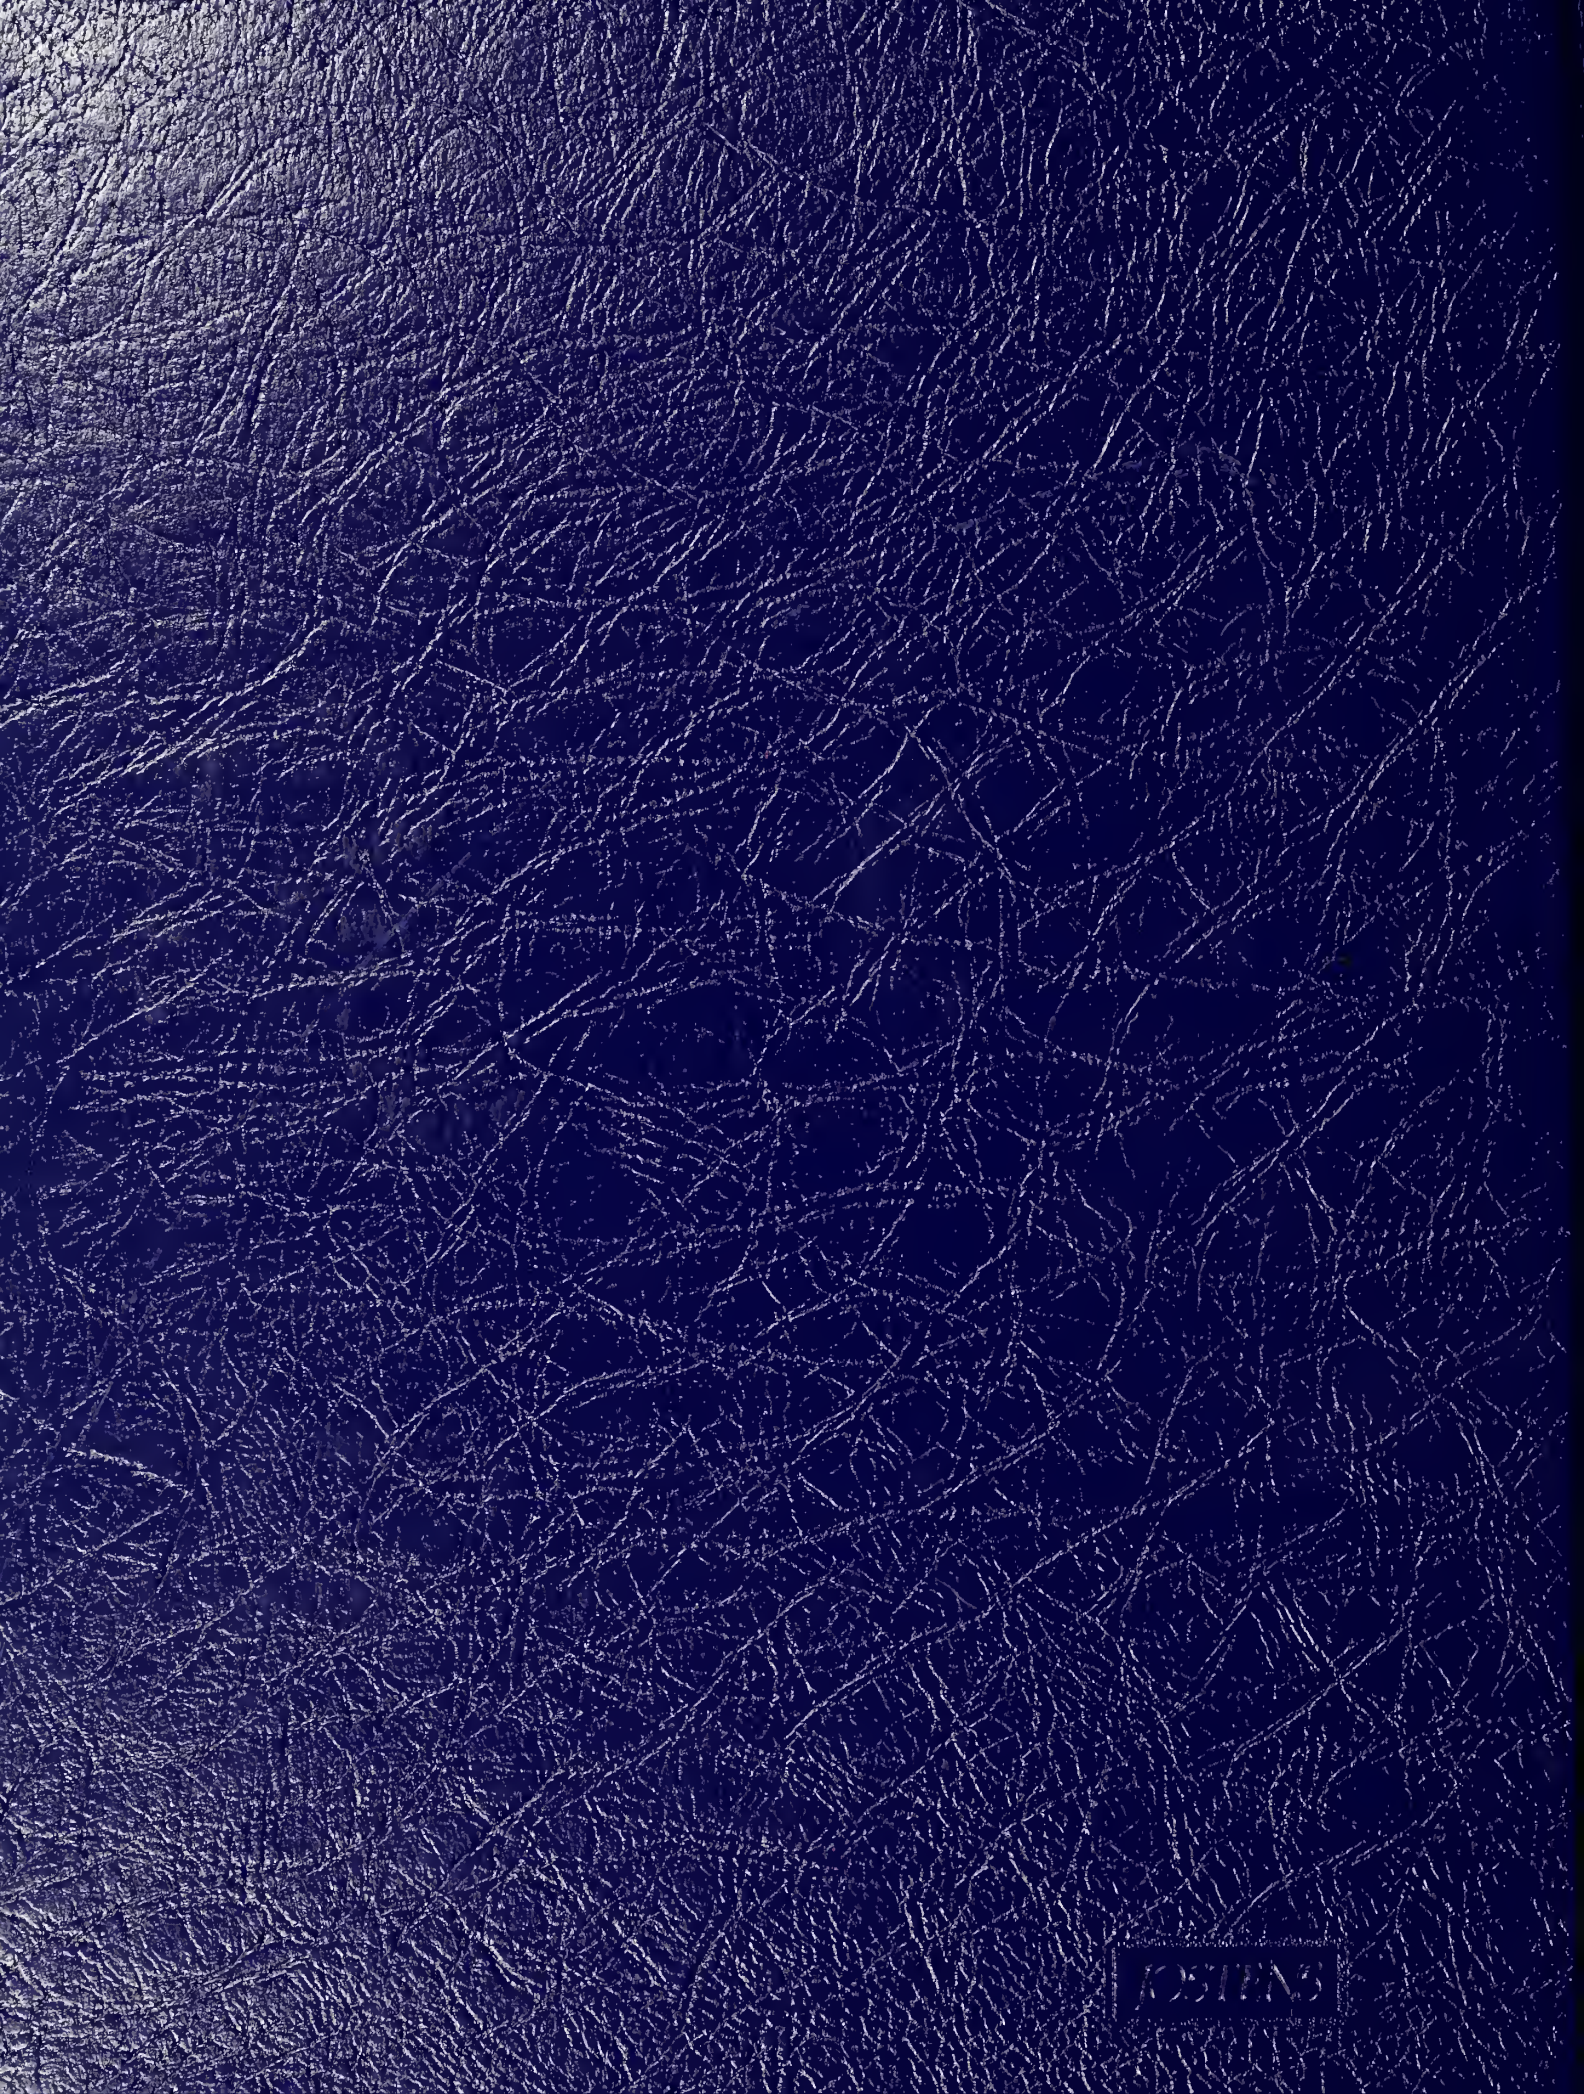

Hail, hail to thee, our Mother Fair, Westminster
Thy sons and daughters thee with homage greet.

While rings our song within thy sacred portals
Fresh wreaths we twine and lay them at thy feet.

Long may she live, our Mother Fair, Westminster!
Fling to the breeze her banner White and Blue.

Halls of our youth, by happy mem'ries hallowed
Our Alma Mater, glorious, grand and true!
